

INFORMATION TO THE MARKET

Banco Votorantim S.A. announces that after 8 years of contribution to the Company, Elcio Jorge dos Santos ends his term as Chief Executive Officer, after successfully leading the advance of the rentabilization strategic plan, increase of operational efficiency and revenue diversification. Such advances led the company to a significant growth and consistent results in the last 3 years.

After a planned and structured transition, the position of CEO is assumed as of this date by Gabriel José Gama Ferreira, who has been the head of Corporate Strategy, Retail, Marketing and Innovation in the past years, to run the digital transformation, innovation and value sustainable generation agenda to the clients, employees and shareholders. With more than 20 years of experience in the development and management of innovative solutions in financial services, he has been one of the main responsible for the successful repositioning of the bank. Gabriel holds a degree in Economics at PUC/RJ and Executive MBA at Stanford University.

The Board of Directors and the Shareholders Votorantim Finanças S.A. and Banco do Brasil S.A. express their sincere gratitude to Elcio for his contribution, that has been elementary to Banco Votorantim S.A.

São Paulo (SP), September 12th, 2019.

Investidor Relations